21-Day Money Cleanse Celebration and Closing Thoughts

WOOOOOO HOOOOOOO!!!! You did it! What a journey! As we come to the close of the 21-Day Money Cleanse, I truly hope the past few weeks have inspired a breakthrough to a new way of looking at your relationship with money.

Now is the time to celebrate and rejoice! You are a different person today than you were just 21 days ago. Reward yourself with a little something for putting in the time and energy it takes to make shift around your relationship with money. Maybe a pedicure or indulge in a piece of delicious chocolate and a glass of champagne. It doesn't need to be big, but you don't want to miss this opportunity to celebrate your accomplishments.

Keep in mind it's ok if you didn't complete everything. Money work can be difficult, so release any guilt you may have about not finishing everything or any hang ups you may have around perfection.

Working on your money is an ongoing process. Just because we have come to the close of this cleanse, does not mean you need to stop here. If you want to go through this process again, you can access all of the emails and worksheets here. Any time you are feeling stuck, or perhaps need a little money inspiration you can refer back to any of the individual lessons or go through the entire 21 days.

I will also be hosting future live rounds. I will keep you posted when these are scheduled so you can join in at any time the live rounds are offered.
